"We hear much of moral and immoral plays," as ead. "I think the plays that tell the truth are moral. "I represent the militant movement for women's suffrage in England. We are fighting against intolerable injustice. We are fighting for the truth. We are ingular for the truth. We are mighting to make women more valuable in the world.

"Now we hear arguments that an equal moral standard for women and men is impossible. I say that men must find a way; that men will find a way, for the progress of the race, to obliterate such idle arguments.

The resolution is severe in its criticism of the company, declaring that its service is to the company, declaring that its service is bad, its charges excibitant and that it is a Baltimore corporation, presided over by "a clerk manned Porter," referring to D. P. Forter.

The resolution is in line with a number of measures Mr. Cary, a member of the House District Committee, has introduced, attacking local public utility interests, and it emphasises further the strong feeling in the committee toward a more strict municipal regulation of local public utilities. Mr. Cary was a strong advocate of the bill creating a public utilities. Mr. Cary was a strong advocate of the bill creating a public utilities commission, which was mothered in the House District Committee and finally enacted as a rider to the District appropriation bill attached in the Senate.

Old People Need a Bowel Stimulant

The Ideal One Is a Mild Laxative-Tonic that Will Keep the Bowels Gently Active.

Healthy old age is so absolutely pendent upon the condition of the bowels that great care should be taken to see that they act regularly. The fact is that as age advances the slomach muscles become weak and inactive and the liver does not store up the juices that are necessary to prompt digestion.
Some bely can be obtained by eating easily digested foods and by plenty of exercise, but this latter is irksome to most elderly people. One thing is certain, that a state of constipation should always be avoided, as it is dangerous to life and health. The best plan is to take a mild laxative as often as
to take a mild laxative as often as is deemed necessary. But with equal certainty it is suggested that cathartics, purgatives, physics, salte, and pills be avoided, as they do but temporary good like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts as nearly like nature as is possible. In fact, the tendency of this remedy is to strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles and so train them to act naturally again, when medicines of all kinds can usually be dispensed with. This is the option of many people of different agos, among them Mrs. Mary A. P. Davidson, of University Mound Home, San Francisco, Cal.
